Braun Northwest

Dear Braun Northwest:

My name is Matt Ferguson. A husband and father of 5. I am a skilled Maintenance Technician, Residential/commercial painter and former pest control specialist and home inspector with over 12 years experience in the field. Provides a reliable and strong work ethic with the ability to work alone or with others. A competent team player that pays attention to detail and helps out where help is needed.

I think this position would be great due to my previous experience in painting/ prep work and trade work. Please consider myself for the opportunity of this position .

Sincerely,

MATT FERGUSON
