RE: Chehalis location, Welder/Fabricator posting, January 28th, 2020

Dear Hiring Manager,

If you are looking for a motivated Welder/Fabricator, I am confident that my skills meet the needs of this position. Please review my attached resume to see my skills and experience. Highlights of what I offer include: My sheer will for wanting to learn new ways to do the things I love, my attention to detail to the smallest imperfections, my abilities to accomplish the task I am given in a timely manner, and so much more. My attached resume outlines my in-depth experience and professional development. If you give me a chance in an interview and hire me as your new Welder/Fabricator, you will not be disappointed.

I am fully prepared for this transition into this new industry, and assure you that my work will exceed your expectations. Here are some examples of my background and expertise that make me a perfect fit for the job:

- At my current job I do anything from welding thick steel plates for a Tilt top trailer, to welding aluminum front bumpers.
- My current boss has me clean the dump trucks and completely detail them till they look brand new thus improving my attention to detail in the smallest forms

My unique strengths, diverse background, and unique perspective will allow me to contribute to Braun Northwest's continued success. If you have any questions about my qualifications please feel free to contact me. I will make myself available for a phone or in-person interview at your convenience.

I am eager to put my enthusiasm and qualifications to the test working for your company.

Regards,

Trevor Richey
